

Everything Feels Like Home

The Henslow is an upscale apartment and townhome community on Daniel Island, one of Charleston's most sought-after neighborhoods.

An inviting collection of residences, amenities, and experiences attuned to the way people want to live. These are spaces that complement and celebrate the native landscape, that make strategic and beautiful use of sunlight, shade, and prevailing breezes, and that artfully blur the line between indoor and outdoor living. Welcome to South Carolina Lowcountry — welcome to low and slow living.
